

ORDINARY ZEN

Presents a Zen Meditation Workshop with Chong An Sunim, 9-21-18 to 9-23-18

Chong An Sunim started Zen practice in 1990, in his birthplace Budapest, Hungary. He became a monk in 1994 and spent the next six years training under the guidance of Zen Master Seung Sahn at the Seoul International Zen Center, Hwa Gye Sa, Korea. He was given the title 'Dharma Master' and thus became authorized to teach in August 1999, by his teacher, the late Zen Master Seung Sahn.

Chong An Sunim continues to serve as founder and abbot of Won Kwang Sa, a Korean temple in the Pilis Mountains, near the capital of Hungary, Budapest and immerses himself in practicing and teaching Zen. He received full Dharma Transmission on May 9th, 2017 from Seol Jong Sunim, thus becoming the first Zen Master of western origin in the Jogye Order of Korean Buddhism.

Friday 9/21/2018 – 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Dharma Talk: Sunim will answer your questions after a brief Introduction by Will Rauschenberger.

Saturday 9/22/2018 – 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Buddha's Eye-Opening Ceremony to bless our new Zendo. Chanting and instructions on meditation. Sessions of sitting meditation, walking meditation and Kong-an interviews.

Sunday 9/23/2018 – 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

Chanting, sitting meditation, walking meditation till noon. Precepts Ceremony and Pot luck to follow -12:30 to 3:00 pm

More information: 941 228 4511 – onezenzoo@gmail.com –

RSVP - Event Registration on our website: <https://ordinaryzensangha.org>

There is no set fee to attend the workshop, however, donations are encouraged. It is through the generosity and support of our community that OZS exists.

Space is limited, you must RSVP.