

ORDINARY ZEN

Presents a Zen Meditation Workshop with Chong An Sunim, March 8 – 10, 2019

Chong An Sunim started Zen practice in 1990, in Budapest, Hungary, his birthplace. He became a monk in 1994 and spent the next six years training under the guidance of Zen Master Seung Sahn at the Seoul International Zen Center, Hwa Gye Sa, Korea. In August 1999, the late Zen Master Seung Sahn, his teacher, gave him the title 'Dharma Master' and authorized him to teach.

Chong An Sunim continues to serve as founder and abbot of Won Kwang Sa, a Korean temple in the Pilis Mountains, near the capital of Hungary, Budapest, where he immerses himself in practicing and teaching Zen. He received full Dharma Transmission on May 9th, 2017 from Seol Jong Sunim, thus becoming the first Zen Master of western origin in the Jogye Order of Korean Buddhism.

Friday 3/8/19 – 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm

Dharma Talk: Sunim will answer your questions after a brief Introduction by Will Rauschenberger.

Saturday 3/9/19 – 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Some Chanting and instructions on meditation begins the Retreat, Dharma Talks, & sessions of sitting meditation, walking meditation and Kong-an interviews.

Sunday 3/10/19 – 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

Chanting & sitting meditation with a circle talk till noon. May also include Precepts Ceremony and a Pot luck -12:30 to 3:00 pm

More information: call: 941 228 4511 – email: onezenzoo@gmail.com

Space is limited, so you must RSVP on our website: ordinaryzensangha.org

<https://ordinaryzensangha.org/zen-master-chong-an-sunim-weekend-workshop-at-ozs/>

There is no set fee to attend the workshop, however, donations are encouraged. It is through the generosity and support of our community that workshops like this are possible. We are also accepting donations on our website to help with Zen Master Chong An Sunims travel expenses.